A little about the Danish "Efterskole" concept

In Denmark there is a special type of residential school offering young people the possibility to complete 10th grade in a "live-in and learn" school - in an exciting and safe environment which provides the young people with the opportunity to self develop, mature and to get new angles and inspiration regarding their future study and career.

AFS Denmark is offering this intensive school program in collaboration with one such school, the "Ranum Efterskole College"

Ranum Efterskole College

Throughout the program the students will live, eat and study at the Ranum Efterskole College.

Ranum Efterskole College is a large residential school which is situated in the country-side approx. one hour's drive from the city of Aalborg and 4 hours' drive from Copenhagen.

The school itself offers a dynamic and socially developing environment with social, creative and sports activities being organized for students in their spare time and weekends. The area of the school is very peaceful and safe and the students are free to leave the school grounds in their spare time (during day time) to go to the adjoining village or surrounding areas.
